

Embedding Good Habits of Learning

Building Character and Resilience for Long-term Success

Training workshop hosted by South Malling CofE Primary School, Lewes
Followed by highly supported action research and 1:1 coaching

Primary teachers with all levels of experience will learn how to:

- ✓ Embed a powerful culture of growth mindset
- ✓ Raise achievement and engagement through the design of an authentic curriculum
- ✓ Create learning opportunities that build character and highly effective behaviours for learning
- ✓ Design meaningful contexts for mastery learning and higher order thinking skills
- ✓ Translate new ideas into sustained good practice with the support of 1:1 online or face to face coaching

Programme facilitation

The initial training and follow up coaching are both led by former Headteacher and Director of Enliven Education Lizzie Overton. For more about Lizzie or Enliven Education please go to www.enliven-ed.com.

'We have been very impressed with the work that Lizzie has done to help our staff develop their own learning. She facilitated genuine action research brilliantly, centred on what actually happens in the classroom and always driven by a desire to find out what works.' Chris Muller, Headteacher, Sir William Perkins School, Chertsey

'It's been great to see inspiring ideas translated into effective and sustained practice. The follow-up coaching has been sensitively tailored to our teachers' different needs and is resulting in some truly enlivened teaching and learning.' Kate Holland, Headteacher, Houndsfield Primary School, Enfield

Dates and times:

The workshop takes place on Thursday 19th January from 1.30 to 5.30. Face to face or online 1:1 coaching extends over the equivalent of 1 full term (approximately 3 months) from the date of the initial training and is arranged at times to suit you.

Value for money

This programme offers unusual good value with a fee of £300 covering attendance at the initial 4 hour training workshop as well as tailored 1:1 coaching.
